

In reference to NVEC petition filing for the removal of the Morse Code requirements of Element 1 for the Amateur Radio Service, I want to comment that Morse Code should stay in place as a incentive for license upgrading for useage for frequencies on the HF bands and disagree with the NVEC petition, I myself have achieved the Element 1 Morse Code and should be preserved ininterests to all.